News Digest.

We have later and interesting European news by the steamers Kangaroo and Arabia. The European Congress, it is stated, would not assemble before the 19th of January.—The volunteer movement in England is still progressing. Lord PALMERSTON had spoken highly eulogistic of it. The wife of J. H. TURNER, member of Parliament, had eloped with one of her family domestics. The lady is worth half a million of dollars. A French war steamer ran on a reef off Brest and sunk.—A Madrid telegram states that 8,000 Moors attacked the Spanish, but were repulsed.—The London Money Market was quiet.—Breadstuffs quiet.

Two fires occurred at Leavenworth yesterday, destroying property valued at $65,000.

Eight prominent citizens of Jackson, Mich., were arrested yesterday, charged with counterfeiting.

THE WAY TO DO IT.—Last Monday the congregation of a Presbyterian Church in St. Louis, wishing to make their pastor a suitable presentation in a suitable manner, invited him and his family out, and then took possession of his house, stocking it with an abundance of good things, spreading a magnificent supper, and placing a well filled purse on the table. When the Rev. gentleman returned home a shock was in store for him as can easily be imagined. This may be called the way to get up a surprise party.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—The Manitowoc Tribune of the 6th says that a German named JACOB IBERUS was killed in the woods near Neshoto one day last week by a falling tree. He was in the employ of Messrs. S. H. SEAMANS & Co. He was laid up all summer with a broken leg, and the tree which he was chopping at the time of the fatal accident was the first out-door work he had done. He lived about six hours.

PIKE'S PEAK.—The latest advices from Pike's Peak state that much dissatisfaction existed with regard to the provisional government recently organized, and it was generally regarded as a failure. Attempts to collect taxes levied by the Legislature were unsuccessful in the mining districts, and a general want of confidence in the adequate power and protection of the government was felt.

A LIBERAL EMPLOYER.—Mr. GEORGE G. EVANS, the enterprising book publisher of Philadelphia, distributed to his employees, on New Year's Day, in addition to their adequate salaries, the sum of $3,000 in sums ranging from ten to two hundred and fifty dollars.

OSHKOSH ITEMS.—On the whole, we really believe the great fire was a benefit to Oshkosh. It is true several unfortunate individuals lost heavily, but the city, Phœnix like, has risen from its ashes and put on a more metropolitan aspect, than it otherwise would have done in the next ten years, but for the fire. Over one hundred good buildings have been erected on the burnt district, among which we notice five brick blocks three stories high, one built by Hay & Clark, one by Bigger & Hill, one by Colwell & Co., another by Petersilea & Co., also a stone block on the corner of Otter and Ferry sts. The foundations of three more brick blocks are built, upon which fine superstructures will be erected in the Spring, one by Kellogg, another by Hutchinson & Co., and the third by a firm whose name we have forgotten. Joseph Stringham is erecting a very large hotel, on the south side of the river. It is, we believe, one hundred feet square on the ground, three stories high, and is to be opened early in the Spring. The city has a thriving and prosperous appearance, and business of all kinds seems to be improving.—Menasha Conservator.

SALE OF EXCHANGE.—Below will be found the amount of exchange sold by the La Crosse County Bank, on New York, Chicago and Milwaukee, for the last three months; also for the current year 1859. It will be seen that the sale of exchange on Milwaukee is nearly double that sold on Chicago. This, probably, is a near indication of the relative proportion of trade between La Crosse and the cities named. The two remaining banks in our city show about the same relative figures, as the following from the La Crosse County Bank:

New York Exchange sold during 1859,	$261,508
Milwaukee " " " "	171,237
Chicago " " " "	91,947
Total	$524,692

Amount paid on produce drafts for October, November and December, 1859, $97,824.

Amount paid for the first week of January, 1860, $13,645.—La Crosse Union.

FIRE AT WAUSAU—THAYER'S GRIST MILL DESTROYED.—About 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Sunday last, while the workmen were at dinner, the grist-mill of Mr. Thayer, at Wausau, was discovered to be on fire; and before any assistance could be procured towards checking the flames, was entirely consumed, together with the residence of Mrs. Kennedy, widow of the late Judge Kennedy. The fire originated from an insecure stove-pipe, which, instead of communicating with the "outer world" by means of a chimney, was carelessly thrust through the roof, and doubtless caught through this neglect. Loss about $10,000; no insurance.—Stevens Point Pinery, Jan. 6.

A RELIC.—We were shown, says the Grand Rapids Eagle, this morning, by A. Preusser, the Monroe street jeweler, a lot of old silver ware recently purchased, among which was a beautiful cup, "presented to ——, in 1849, by Ned Buntline." The fate of this cup is a striking illustration of the degeneracy of the times, or of "Ned's" better days and of his friend's waning love and exhausted financial condition. Who knows but the history of that little silver token, if written out in "Ned's" best style, would make a sensation equal to that of the "Hidden Hand" or some other awfully sublime and bloody tale.

A SKATING CHALLENGE.—A New York correspondent of the Charleston Mercury, speaking of the furore in New York, says that the best skater there last winter was a Boston girl. One of the Gothamite beauties was the only one that could approach her in fleetness of movement. The latter has sent a challenge to the fair Bostonian, wagering an even hundred dollars that she will skate three times around the Central Park Pond quicker than her rival. This challenge has been accepted, and the contest will probably come off on the first of January, or as soon after that date as the weather will permit.

THE LOG SUIT.—Quite a number of witnesses, summoned to appear before Judge Miller's Court, in the matter of the United States vs. Casey and brother, of Stillwater, for taking lumber from government land, started for Milwaukee last Friday morning. The party consists of Messrs. Reymert, Everts, Elwell, Hale, McClure, Burrows, and others. They will have a good time.—Hudson North Star, 4th.

THE CHICAGO CONVENTION.

The Call Endorsed by a Southern Opposition Organ—A Candid and Telling Article.

From the Baltimore Patriot.

A National Republican Convention, embracing

Republicans,

Members of the People's Party of Pennsylvania,

Members of the Opposition Party of New Jersey,

And all others,

who are willing to co-operate in support of candidates, then and there to be nominated for President and Vice President, has been officially called to assemble at Chicago on the 13th day of June, 1860. Delegates from each Congressional District, and four from the State at large, are to constitute the representatives.

The basis on which this Convention is called, according to the terms of the notification, is Opposition,

1. To the policy of the present Administration;
2. To Federal corruption and usurpation;
3. To the extension of Slavery in the Territories;
4. To the new and dangerous political doctrine, that the Constitution, of its own force, carries Slavery into the Territories of the United States;
5. To the re-opening of the African Slave Trade;
6. To any inequality among citizens;
7. And who are in favor of the admission of Kansas under the Constitution recently adopted by its people;
8. Of restoring the Federal Administration to a system of rigid economy, and to the principles of Washington and Jefferson;
9. Of maintaining inviolate the rights of the States, and defending the soil of every State and Territory from lawless invasion;
10. And of preserving the integrity of the Union, and the supremacy of the Constitution and laws passed in pursuance thereof, against the conspiracy of the leaders of a sectional party to resist the majority principle as established by this Government, even at the expense of its existence.

The first ground of oppositionists, it seems to us, would have been all sufficient, and had we had the authority, we would have limited the call to this comprehensive proposition, for it is broad enough to combine all the elements of hostility to the ruling dynasty, which is little more than an expression in itself of every conceivable sort of mal-administration and heresy against the Constitution and our institutions as established by the fathers. But as the authors of the call have deemed it wise to amplify somewhat, let us look into these specifications, and see what they really mean.

Everybody will understand the first and second specifications. Open and unblushing corruptions and usurpations constitute the very existence of the Administration policy, and the only way to save our institutions from positive and final destruction is to drive the dynasty out of power with a universal shout of indignation. It has earned the wages of political sin, and nothing remains but to discharge the obligation. Let it be consigned speedily to the political death that it merits.

The third and fourth propositions, it will be seen, embrace good old Henry Clay Whig doctrines on this subject. He was utterly opposed to the extension of Slavery into free Territories, and said he would see his right arm drop from his shoulder, before he would lift it in support of any such policy. And though the black heresy that the Constitution plants Slavery by its own inherent power in the Territories, had not yet reared its black head distinctly above the horizon, yet Mr. Clay foresaw it, and met it on a hundred occasions, in his public speeches, directly and indirectly, with withering denunciations and irresistable demonstrations of its unsoundness. But we are content to rest the fallacy of this outrageous doctrine upon the Hon. Reverdy Johnson's recent arguments against it. Inspired with the principles of the great American master of political economy, at whose feet he sat for so many years, with such eminent distinction to himself and his teacher, he leaves the heretic at the head of the government, and his attorney, Black, not an inch of ground to stand upon. Well may the Chicago Oppositionists call for a union, in support of these indestrictible principles. We know of no Opposition man in the whole country who will refuse to sustain these propositions.

The sixth specification is one that every American citizen ought to approve by his vote and his acts. It is a timely assertion of the right of every foreign-born citizen to be protected by the whole power of the Government, should he chance to return to the country of his birth, or when he is traveling abroad. He is entitled to as much protection as a native born citizen, for he has been made a citizen without reservation. No more shameful Leclerc letters, we hope, will ever emanate from the State Department, let the Secretary be who he may. There must be no more inequality in the rights of citizens, where they are in foreign countries.—We must either assert the entire right of a foreigner to absolve himself from military allegiance, which is a political duty, or surrender at once. Justice to our naturalized citizens demands action on this subject, and this issue should be broadly made next fall.

No man in the Opposition dynasty at Washington, can be so perverse as to disagree to the proposition against reviving the African slave trade, or that in favor of admitting Kansas, and getting her out of the way; or that for bringing back the government to a system of honesty and rigid economy. If there be any such man, he ought to go over to the enemy at once.

The ninth specification is a bold assertion of Gov. Wise's extreme doctrine on this subject, and the party or parties that will stand by this resolution cannot fail to win the respect, if not the support, of even Southern fire-eaters. This is marching straight up to the requirements, which from day to day we have been pointing out as necessary to the preservation of our intestate relation. Mr. Buchanan can see no power in the Constitution to authorize him to put a stop to lawless invasions of the States and Territories, upon such terms, the execution of which is almost impossible. The Chicago Oppositionists propose to inaugurate the exercise of this power as a constitutional one, which it is the duty of the President to resort to whenever the occasion rises, let the invasion come from what quarter it may. We are glad to see that our Northern brethren stand upon no idle distinctions.

The tenth proposition is well taken. It meets a new state of things. It strikes right at the root of Abolitionism, that spits upon the Constitution and refuses to bow to the will of the majority. It deals a stunning blow to the conspiracies of that Disunionism which has found some forty advocates on the floor of Congress, within the present month. Every Unionist everywhere will not fail to welcome this expression of hostility to such a revolutionary spirit, from the Northern and Western Opposition parties. It can be responded to by the whole Southern Opposition as sound doctrine.

Though the call of this Convention was made by the Republican National Committee, it must not be forgotten, that the extension of the invitation to the other two parties mentioned by name, was made at the express desire of their representatives in Congress, so that, in thus opening the door to these parties, as well as to all others who may be willing to co-operate upon the basis set forth, the Convention divests itself of an exclusively Republican cast, and becomes to an extent a National Opposition one. It remains to be seen how the invitation will be responded to.

NEW ÆNESTHETIC.—Doctor Velpeau, of the French Academy of Sciences, has proposed a method of putting people into a cataleptic state and rendering them insensible to surgical operations, by holding near their nose some bright object and causing them to look at it steadily with the eyes in a convergent squint. In a few moments the patient becomes rigid and insensible to pain, but not entirely so to reason, and may be operated upon with impunity. The Paris correspondent of the New York Times, himself an accomplished physician, says that this discovery was made by Dr. Braid, of Scotland, about 1830, and was much talked about in England and America at the time, but soon went into disrepute, because it was regarded only as a phenomenon of magnetism, and magnetism was then in the hands of charlatans.

THE DOWAGIAC BURGLARY.—The trial of Stearns, the principal in the daring burglary at Dowagiac, and the shooting of Mr. Larzelere, was to begin Friday. Short work will probably be made of his trial. His parents reside at Lawton, and he is about twenty-eight years old. When he was arrested in Ohio, letters were found upon him, one from a young man in Milwaukee asking for a supply of counterfeit money, and another from a man in Indiana, offering a safe retreat till the affair should blow over. It was also ascertained that a woman named Powers, at Lawton, secreted him after the burglary and aided in his escape. She has been arrested and will be tried for the offense.

THE CITY.

WE WANT A THEATRE.—And we shall soon have everything but the living appendages—the men in flesh colored tights and the women in ringlets, called act-tresses. We want a good company to form and perform. We want to see Young's block an attraction for both old and young. We want to see the mill running again, aye any kind of a Thespian mill—"Camille" and shouldn't object to the "miller and his men." Strangers who pass through our town go through much easier than a camel through a needle. Country people go off, because there's nothing going on. We shall all wear out unless we are re-created. We want music o' nights—not the "Anvil Chorus" any more, that has been hammered at and tinkered enough; not the La Gaza Ladra—that is too intense, too fine; we want light, orchestral music, popular, breezy, refreshing. We want an element of amusement that we can wade into in the evening and float about on, and come out of, rejuvinated. We want one house in town to be lit up after nine o'clock so that the beer shops will have company. We want some place to look upon us as dead-heads—aye, and lively ones. What is the use in being an editor and doing one's best to be full of life, if one cannot pass for a dead-head. Eh?

EXTREME POVERTY AND SUICIDE.—Yesterday morning the body of Mr. EDWARD HOSSFELDT, a German, was found hanging by the neck, lifeless, on a tree, about two miles out of town, near Spring street. He was a temperate man, and supposed to be in his right mind.

He left his home in the Ninth Ward, on the Lisbon plank road, the day before, telling his wife he should try to collect some money. We were at the Police Station yesterday, when she came in, to learn how she would be likely to find him. She soon saw the body, stretched out with the rope still cutting into his neck, and her agony as she fell upon him and kissed him, made a heart-rending scene.

He was extremely poor, and starvation, the hungry, meagre fiend, chased him and his family close behind, and he took this means to escape its clutch. Besides his wife, he leaves three small children.

He was 40 years of age, and being an educated man, he had taught school for three months, at $17 per month, in the town of Milwaukee, on the Green Bay road; but he had not been able to get his pay from the town, except one dollar in money and a few dollars worth of provisions. The Coroner deemed it unnecessary to call a jury.

EARNING HIS MILEAGE.—Mr. ASAPH WHITTLESEY, who resides in La Pointe county and represents the extensive Northern District of our State, arrived in town, Saturday, and left for Madison, yesterday afternoon. Mr. WHITTLESEY started from his home, at Ashland, head of Chegoimegon Bay, Lake Superior, on the 27th of December, with the half-breed mail carrier and a team of dogs. They followed an old Indian trail, all the way from Ashland to Chippewa Falls, a distance of some 180 miles; Mr. WHITTLESEY traveling most of the way on snow-shoes and "bivouacking" every night, with the mercury at from five to twenty degrees below zero. Mr. WHITTLESEY made the journey to Chippewa Falls in a week, and thence had a pleasant trip, by sleigh and railroad, to this city. He has fairly earned his mileage. Of course, Mr. WHITTLESEY is a Republican to the back-bone.

ORDINATION.—On Sunday morning the Rev. HENRY WHITEHOUSE SPALDING was ordained to the office of priesthood by the Rt. Rev. Dr. KEMPER, assisted in the laying on of hands by the Rev. Messrs. INGRAHAM KEENE and PEDELUPE, at the Church of St. James (Episcopal.) The congregation was large and the sermon deeply interesting.

It is stated that the Rev. Mr. SPALDING has received a call to take charge of a parish in Janesville.

MILWAUKEE CITY INSURANCE COMPANY.—We are glad to learn that the Milwaukee City Insurance Company have, by a unanimous vote, appointed Mr. ALBERT BADE, as their General Agent. Mr. BADE has been in the Insurance Business for several years, and will undoubtedly give the Company the full benefit of his experience and abilities. The Directors and Stockholders of the Milwaukee City Insurance Company are among our leading and responsible citizens.

THE COUNTY PHYSICIANS.—The Board of Supervisors have appointed the following persons County Physicians for the ensuing year:

Doctors WELLS, HARPKEY and DOUSMAN, for the city; Dr. DAY for the Almshouse at Wauwatosa and the town of Greenfield, and Dr. WALSH, of Franklin, for the southern towns in the county.

REMEMBER THIS.—A majority of the men and women who partake of the charity of the soup house, are able and willing to work at any price, if they can get anything to do. Therefore, people wanting either male or female help, even if it is only for some odd job, will do well to call at the soup house between 10 a. m. and 2 p. m., where they can be supplied.

THE LIGHT GUARD ANNIVERSARY.—The Milwaukee Light Guard celebrate their fifth anniversary to-day, by a parade in the forenoon and a social party, at the Newhall House, in the evening. Their festival will be abundantly worth attending, and we hope to see the "beauty and chivalry" of this city fully represented at the Newhall to-night.

CHARLEY ABBOTT.—This old favorite of the Milwaukee dancing public, who, for many years, in company with Hess, made music for the "Pioneers" of our city, has returned and resumed his residence among us. He has become connected with the American Cornet Band, and will play, to-night, at the Ball of the Milwaukee Light Guard.

OFF FOR MADISON.—A number of the Senators and Assemblymen elect left our city, for Madison, yesterday afternoon. More will follow this P. M., as well as the usual crowd of reporters, office-seekers and interested, or indifferent lookers-on.

PERSONAL.—Mr. C. E. MOODY has been appointed Agent in the Union Ticket Office, for the Milwaukee & Chicago, Michigan Central, Michigan Southern and Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroads. The office was formerly occupied by H. E. SAWYER.

THE BACHELORS' PARTY is postponed until to-morrow (Wednesday) evening. These parties, given at the new Masonic Hall, are about as pleasant as any ever before attempted here.

D. S. CURTIS, of Madison, proposes to spend the winter in delivering familiar lectures on Agricultural and other subjects of special interest to the industrial people of this State.

FIRE ALARM.—The alarm of fire Sunday evening, we understand to have been caused by the burning of a shanty in the Fifth Ward.

THE attention of our readers is invited to the advertisement of OGDEN & WALL this morning.

MUNICIPAL COURT, JAN. 7.—The Grand Jury came into court and made the following presentments, to-wit:

State vs. John Johnson; having counterfeit money in his possession, with the intention of passing the same. Endorsed true bill.

State vs. Samuel S. Conover; kidnapping. Endorsed no bill.

State vs. Laban Capron; suffering escape of prisoner. Endorsed no bill.

State vs. Laban Capron; suffering prisoner to escape. Endorsed no bill, and was therefore discharged.

JANUARY 9TH.—Mary M. Brannard, disorderly; penalty and costs $5,51. Execution issued.

Edward Curly, John Curly and Andrew McNeil, disorderly; penalty and costs $13,38. Execution issued.

Martin Burgalt, disorderly; penalty and costs $2,29. Paid.

Henry Aber and Michael McLaughlin, disorderly; penalty and costs $7,73. Paid.

John Strebe and Jacob Klein, assault and battery, fine and costs $5,50. Execution issued.

Michael Dempsey and George Moore, indicted for stealing pork. Trial proceeding.

HOPE SPRINGS ETERNAL, &c.—The Chicago Tribune announces the dissolution of Hope Hose Company of that city, for many years one of the ornaments of the Chicago Fire Department. The Tribune thus closes its account:

The boys of Hope Hose Company, at a late meeting, voted to disband; and in so doing they have marked the era of the close of their gallant career with a deed of generosity fully in keeping with their fame, and the truth that—

> "The bravest are the tenderest,
> The loving are the daring."

They are to secure as early a sale as possible of their beautiful silver mounted carriage and all the accoutrements of the late corps, and devote the proceeds to the "Home of the Friendless." Well done "Hope."

All right "Hope." But their elegant carriage was purchased some three weeks ago, by Liberty Hose Company of this city, and is now in their possession.

EDITOR OF THE SENTINEL:—Having seen a paragraph in the Sentinel last week, wherein you called on the Free Democrat to correct its Church Directory, and believing that you intend to keep your's correct, I take the liberty to call your attention to a few errors in yours. St. Mary's (Catholic) you give Rev. PAULHUBER. This gentleman left more than three years ago for Europe, where he still remains. After his departure, the Rev. FREY took his place, and after he left, more two years ago, the Rev. Father FABIAN PERMADINGER has been the Priest at St. Mary's for nearly one year; and when this gentleman left last summer the Rev. T. ETSCHMANN took his place; and when he left, about one month ago, for La Crosse, to take the place of the Rev. H. TAPPERTS, this gentleman took Father ETSCHMANN'S place here, so that the present Priest at St. Mary's, is the Rev. H. TAPPERTS.

St. Trinity Church, Walker's Point, the Rev. SADLER left nearly one year ago for Rochester, New York, and at present the Rev. CONRAD is the Priest in that Church.

Respectfully yours,
A READER OF THE SENTINEL.

MR. C. E. MOODY, who has been appointed successor to H. E. SAWYER, in the Union Ticket Office, corner of Wisconsin and East Water streets, is a nephew of J. F. MOODY, the popular Superintendent of the Milwaukee & Chicago Railroad.

TELEGRAPH!

REPORTED BY THE N. Y. ASSOCIATED PRESS, FOR THE DAILY SENTINEL.

Later European News.

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.

The steamships Kangaroo and Arabia have arrived. The latter left Liverpool at 9:30 a. m. of 24th ult. The Vigo left Liverpool for Philadelphia on the 23d ult. The Circassian arrived at Galway on the 22d ult. She had on board the crew of the ship Moffat from St. John's for Liverpool, which was abandoned at sea.

The report that the Pope had claimed the Presidency of the Congress for his plenipotentiary, is unfounded. Prince Gortschakoff had expressed a desire that the opening of Congress should take place after the commencement of the new year, Jan. 13, as he will be detained on that day at his Court by the duties of his office. Higdor, the representative of the republic, had presented a memorandum to Count Walewski, addressed to the future Congress, protesting against encouragement of Piedmont.

The nomination of the Marquis Auvergne, formerly ambassador of France at Turin, as the second French plenipotentiary at the Congress, gave great satisfaction to the friends of Italy.

A Paris despatch of the 23d says the French Government had telegraphed the powers concerned that the opening of the Congress would not take place before January 19th.

Marquis Antolidi and Chevalier Canafari were appointed first and second plenipotentiaries from Naples.

GREAT BRITAIN.—The London Herald had announced that a complete reform bill is to appear in the Constitution Press Magazine, and in the event of the postponement of the ministerial reform bill, or its proving unacceptable to the Constitutional party, the bill to be published will be adopted immediately before the House of Commons.

Lord Palmerston had been making speeches highly eulogistic of the volunteer movement.

The Great Britain was spoken Dec. 24th, all well, which strengthened the conviction that the report of her having foundered was but a hoax.

Lord John Russell tells the memorialists, relative to Mexico, that England is endeavoring to come to an understanding with other powers in regard to the course to pursue. He points out the difficulty of the United States recognizing one President and England and France another.

The wife of J. H. Turner, member of Parliament, had eloped with one of the family domestics. The lady is worth half a million of pounds sterling in her own right.

The Belgian Government has agreed to forward its mails for Canada and the United States by Canadian Steamers as well as Cunard boats, and it was supposed that the German Postal League would adopt similar arrangements.

FRANCE.—A pamphlet entitled "The Pope and the Congress," signed by L. De Laguerronier has been published and attracts much attention both in France and England, as it was believed to express the sentiments of the Emperor. The pamphlet is written in a spirit of conciliation and compromise, and although it does not propose to take away the temporal power of the Pope, it advocates a curtailment of them, and urges that Romagna should not be restored to the Papal dominions.

The Constitutional, in an article by a principle editor, approves in general the contents, bearing, however, that it intends to combat some of the propositions made by the author.

The English press, generally, eulogize the pamphlet. The Times says: We leave others to cavil on forms and ceremonies. Enough for us if there is a reasonable hope that the two great European powers will be found side by side, in the defence of the rights of the Italian people, and that Protestant England will find a hearty and efficient support in the Emperor of Catholic France.

The French war steamer Dugeschin, while trying her engines off Brest, ran on a reef and rapidly sunk in deep water.

The Bourse closed firm on the 23d ult.—Rentes 70f.50c.

SPAIN AND MOROCCO.—A Madrid telegram of the 21st Dec. says, yesterday 8,000 Moors attacked the Spanish, but were repulsed and compelled to retreat in great disorder, under a heavy fire of grape shot and grenades. The Spanish had 51 wounded.

Ten men of war, which were stationed at Havana, have arrived to reinforce the squadron at Alfressas.

A great quantity of provisions had been despatched to the army in Africa.

A Madrid despatch of the 23d says that the Moors had attacked the Spaniards on the road to Otan, in order to obstruct the works. They were victoriously repulsed. Gen. Paine distinguished himself. The Spanish had 4 killed and 40 wounded.

Arrival of the Atlantic.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9—9 P. M.

The steamer Atlantic arrived to-day. She left Aspinwall at 12:30 on the morning of the 2d.

She brings 200 passengers and nearly $1,800,000 in specie.

Her news are mostly anticipated.

The present Legislature of Nevada Territory, met on the 15th, at Genoa, and took measures for procuring an immediate recognition of the Territory by Congress.

Three schooners have arrived from Japan during the week, bringing full cargoes of rich Japanese wares. The advices they bring are to the 15th of November, and are important.

The difficulty respecting American currency continued.

Goods were scarce and commanding an advance of 20 per cent.

The government was throwing obstacles in the way of trade, and had issued orders that no merchant should sell over 10 parcels per day of any article.

The Powhattan was to sail from Kanajawa on the 22d ult., taking the Japanese Embassy, consisting of two chief ambassadors, eight officials and two subordinates.

The Embassy would proceed to Parma via the Sandwich Islands, and proceed direct to Washington.

There was a rumor at Hagodadi that the English Consul had advised the English citizens to go armed, in consequence of threats made against them by the Japanese.

A party of Americans from the Powhattan, had visited Jeddo.

There was a large fire in Jeddo city on the 10th of Nov.

New York Matters.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9—9 P. M.

Lawrence Crandyke, a seafaring man, voluntarily gave himself into custody for the murder of Jas. Quinn, on board a ship in the North River, on the 26th of November last. A man named Dewing is now in the Toombs awaiting trial for the same offence, having been accused of it by Quinn before his death.

On Saturday morning the Percussion Cap Factory, owned by Dr. Isaac Goldwarth, exploded, killing instantly a young man named Hollenbach, the only person on the premises at the time.

The Oregon War Debt.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9—9 P. M.

The bill recently introduced by Senator Lane, of Oregon, provides for the settlement of the Oregon and Washington war debt of 1855-56, according to the Military Convention which spent twelve months in the examination of claims, to guard against speculations. The money is proposed to be paid only to the original claimants, or their legal attorneys or assignees. The amount involved is about $5,000,000. The bill is altogether independent of the measure now in progress at the Treasury Department, for scaling the various items to the army standard.

Distressing Occurrence.

BOSTON, Jan. 9—3 P. M.

Wm. Sawyer and wife were found dead in their bed yesterday morning at their residence at Haverhill, Mass. Their death was caused by the coal gas escaping from the flue.

Mr. Sawyer was of the firm of Messrs. Cheney, Averil & Co., expressmen of this city.

LATEST NEWS!

BY LAST NIGHT'S REPORT

Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9—9 P. M.

Mr. Winslow asked Mr. Gartrell who was entitled to the floor, and to give way to a call of the House.

Mr. Gartrell said that although he did not wish to trespass on the House but a short time to-day, if his friends desired it, and thought there was a prospect of organizing, he would cheerfully yield the floor for the purpose of voting, with the understanding that he was entitled to the floor when the discussion was resumed.

The House was called.

Mr. Winslow moved that the House proceed to vote; agreed to, with the following result:

Whole number of votes, 219. Necessary to a choice, 110; Sherman, 105; Hamilton of Texas, 88; Gilmer, 22.

Mr. Hamilton voted for Mr. Winslow.

Messrs. Florence, Mills and Hindman, who were absent at the call of the House, subsequently appeared and voted.

Mr. Leach, of N. C., voted for Mr. Gilmer, but said, when his vote was necessary to elect a good conservative Democrat, it should not be wanted. If his friends of the Southern Opposition had on Saturday voted for Mr. Hamilton, that gentleman could have been elected.

Mr. Scott said he got out of a sick bed to vote for Mr. Hamilton, not knowing that he had been paired off with Mr. Pottle.

The House again proceeded to vote, with the following result:

Whole number of votes, 219; necessary to choice, 110; Sherman, 105; Hamilton, 88; Gilmer, 19; Reynolds, 3; scattering, 4.

Another ballot resulted as follows:

Whole number of votes, 219; necessary to choice, 110; Sherman, 105; Hamilton, 88; Gilmer, 18; Reynolds, 3; Hickman, 2; scattering, 3.

Messrs. Adrian and Clark, of New York, and Riggs, voted for Mr. Reynolds; and Messrs. Carter and Haskin voted for Mr. Hickman. Adjourned.

SENATE.—Messrs. Seward and Douglas appeared in their seats.

The attendance was slim.

Mr. Gwin introduced a bill to organize the territory of Nevada. Referred.

Mr. Brown gave notice of a bill to establish a Government printing office.

Mr. Davis introduced bills to facilitate the enlistment of soldiers in the army, to fix the pay and regulate the allowances of officers of the army, and to promote the efficiency of the army by retiring of disabled and infirm officers; all of which was referred to the committee on military affairs.

Mr. Wilson presented the petition of a committee of the people of Boston against the removal of the Post office.

Mr. Lane offered a resolution calling on the President for the correspondence of General Winfield Scott and Gen. Kearney, in regard to the Island of San Juan. Adopted.

Mr. Slidell introduced a bill to prohibit the issue and circulation of bank notes in the District of Columbia, of a less denomination than fifty dollars. Referred to a select committee of five.

Mr. Iverson offered a resolution instructing the Secretary of the Treasury to inform the Senate what portion of the sum appropriated under the Treaty of Hidalgo, for the payment of claims of American citizens, remains unexpended. Adopted.

Mr. Mallory presented a memorial from the citizens of Charleston for the establishment of a steamship line from Charleston to Havana. Referred.

Mr. Foster being excused from the special committee on the Homas land grant, on motion of Mr. Toombs the committee was reduced to four.

Mr. Wilson introduced a resolution calling on the Secretary of the Treasury to communicate a statement of the exports, imports and tonnage of the British North American provinces, distinguishing Canada from the others. Adopted.

Mr. Dixon of Connecticut addressed the Senate in opposition to the Presidents recommeding in regard to the Amistead claim, going into a lengthy history of the case. He contended that there was no legal claim upon this Government, slaves had never been recognized as property nationally, but only locally. He quoted the letter of President Monroe in support of his position, and read from Spanish and other laws to show that slaves could not be considered as property.—He also quoted an opinion of Justice Story.

Mr. Iverson moved to take up Mr. Pugh's resolution offered last week. Carried.

Mr. Iverson said the Senator from Ohio charged him with having advocated, in 1848, while a member of the lower House, the doctrine of Popular Sovereignty. He admitted it, but he had recanted this error. He now regarded it the duty of Congress to protect by enactment, Slavery in the Territories, and denied the right of Congress to prohibit Slavery therein. He then explained his action on the Oregon bill in 1848 and went into a history of the legislation of Congress since 1848 on this subject.

In the course of his remarks Mr. Iverson denounced Douglas and the Northern Democracy as occupying a position as objectionable as that of the Wilmot Proviso Republicans. He would not vote for Douglas if he were nominated at Charleston on the Cincinnati platform, and advocated a dissolution of the Union in case of the election of a Black Republican President.

Washington Matters.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9—3 P. M.

One of the bills introduced by Senator Davis, authorizes the Secretary of War to issue to any State or territory, on application of the Governor thereof, such arms as may be spared, provided an amount sufficient to replace them by fabrication be deposited, and proposes to restore the military superintendency of the armories.

The Southern Oppositionists who voted with the Democrats for Mr. Hamilton were Messrs. Butler, Bolendy, Hindman, Moore of Kentucky, and Vance. The remainder of them, supported Mr. Gilmer, in company with Mr. Briggs. Messrs. Adrian, Clarke of N. Y., and Riggs, voted for Mr. Reynolds.—Mr. Barr voted for Mr. Davis of Indiana.—Messrs. Haskin and Carter voted for Mr. Hickman; Mr. Gilmer for Mr. Holton. Mr. Hamilton for Mr. Keitt. Mr. Morris, of Pa., once voted for Mr. Gilmer and then returned to Mr. Sherman.

The Washington correspondent of the Tribune says, a conference was held yesterday, of the delegates of South Americans, anti-Lecomptonites and Democrats, at which it was agreed to vote down Hickman's plurality proposition, on the belief that they would exclude Sherman. No agreement was reached on the Speaker and other officers. But the opinions expressed made it apparent that a perfect fusion on Hamiton of Texas, was not practicable.

It also appears that the only members now absent without a pair, are Clingman and Taylor.

Later from Buenos Ayres.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9—9 P. M.

Via Valparaiso later news has been received from Buenos Ayres. After Urquiza's victory over Mitre, he marched to Buenos Ayres, where he was met by a committee of citizens, and a friendly agreement entered into between them, of which the following are the leading points:

Buenos Ayres is to form a part of the Argentine Confederation.

The Home and Foreign Debt of Buenos Ayres is to be considered as a National Debt.

Urquiza to retire with his army within two weeks after the signing of the treaty.

A general and absolute amnesty is granted.

Alsiva had resigned the government of Buenos Ayers, and was replaced by Lavalloc.

The agitation throughout the country had ceased and affairs generally wore a more favorable aspect.

Seventy-three of the clergy were present, including Bishop Kendrick, of Baltimore, Laughlin, of Brooklyn, McGill, of Richmond, and also Bishop Wood, of Philadelphia. The concourse of people was immense, filling the avenue to the church.

Death of a Distinguished Officer.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9—9 P. M.

HORRIBLE SUFFERING.—The Madison Patriot gives the following:

We have heard the full particulars of the burning of the woman in the First Ward about a week ago. Her name was Kelly, and she was upwards of forty years old.—On the night of the fatal occurence, Mrs. Kelly and her husband were sitting by the fire in their shanty making merry over a jug of whisky. After a time the drink stupified them, and the unfortunate woman fell forwards on the fire and ignited her clothes.—Her miserable husband, in his fuddled condition, only knew enough to lay her on the floor, and being unable to do more, he left her burning and staggered out of the shanty crying "fire." Those in the adjoining shanties did not pay the least attention to his alarm, for the reason, as one of them states, that "it was only thought to be a drunken spree of Kelly's." The woman lay a burning mass until everything combustible about her burnt out, and the planks of the floor were actually charred to the depth of two inches. With the exception of her face, she was horribly burned all over, and after lingering in excruciating agony for three days she was happily relieved from her sufferings by death.

This case affords another impressive commentary on the danger of intemperance, and we trust that there are but few whose habits will occasion them to regard it as a terrible example. The trouble is that those to whom it should appeal to most, will regard it least.

LOOK OUT FOR COUNTERFEITERS.—A couple of men from La Crosse, who are well known, drove through Bristol a few days since, and passed two counterfeit fives on the Lafayette Bank, Bloomington, Ill., and attempted to pass a third. They were pursued and compelled to take back their worthless stuff, but unfortunately, were then allowed to go. The public are cautioned against taking the denomination of fives on that bank, and if any one is caught passing them, he should be quietly tied up.—Jackson County Banner.

DROWNED.—A letter was received yesterday from the South, saying that Wm. Scofield with a party of three others, was capsized in a boat and drowned, near Memphis, last week. Scofield left La Crescent last summer, with John Loony and Sons, for Pike's Peak.

THE SENTINEL.

DAILY, TRI-WEEKLY & WEEKLY.

RUFUS KING, Editor.

TUESDAY MORNING, JAN. 10, 1860.

The Legislature.

The annual session of our State Legislature commences at Madison at noon to-morrow. No doubt there will be a quorum present in both Senate and Assembly, and the two Houses will be organized and ready for business by Thursday; on which day the Governor's Message will probably be delivered. The readers of the Sentinel may therefore expect to see the Message in our regular issue of Friday morning.

We have heretofore expressed the hope that the session would be a brief, busy and economical one. Our Republican friends in the Legislature, as in the different State Offices, should bear in mind that the entire responsibility for the prudent and efficient administration of the State Government, in all its branches, is now, for the first time in the history of Wisconsin, devolved upon the Republican Party. The People have been taught to believe that the Republican Party are opposed to special legislation, to extravagant expenditures, to the multiplication of unnecessary offices, and to burdensome taxation; and that they are in favor of equal laws, exact justice, moderate appropriations and light taxes. The time has come when our professions, in these regards, are to be judged by our acts. Let us not disappoint the reasonable expectations of the People.—Let us faithfully redeem the pledges made in the canvass of last fall. Let us prove to the electors of Wisconsin that they judged well and wisely in committing the management of our State affairs to Republican hands.—So shall we justify the confident predictions of our friends and disappoint the expectations of our opponents. And so, too, shall we best serve the State of our choice and adoption, and the GOOD CAUSE which we hope to see triumphant in the great contest of next fall.

SENATOR DOOLITTLE'S SPEECH.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Courier & Enquirer, under date of January 5th, writes as follows:

> "Mr. Doolittle gave Mr. Douglas and the Administration men both some nuts which they will find hard to crack. He called in the testimony of Calhoun and Adams and Monroe and others, to show that the positions of both wings of the Democracy were new inventions which were not only untenable but utterly unknown to, and never conceived by, the framers of the Constitution and the earlier statesmen. Mr. Doolittle is a ready and able debater, to whom the Senate always listens with attention. He states his positions clearly and fairly, and fortifies them with sound arguments, couched in language both eloquent and expressive."

The correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, referring to the same debate, says:

> "The next episode was Doolittle's assault on that part of the President's message relating to the power of Congress over the Territories. He showed that Buchanan and the whole Southern party had changed their views in ten years, which he was willing they should do, but he did not wish them to insist with threats on Northern men doing the same thing.—He spoke for several hours with great force, having to sustain a running fire from the Southern Senators throughout. Toward the close, Pugh pitched in, and denied that anything had been done under any Administration, to sustain Doolittle's view of the power of Congress to legislate upon slavery in the Territories.
> Doolittle picked up the Act for the Annexation of Texas, and read the clause providing that that State may hereafter be divided into four States, and prohibiting Slavery in those North of 36 30. This stumped Pugh, who floundered awhile and then said it was useless to waste words on the Senator from Wisconsin, and ingloriously retired."

This is the speech which the News so coarsely assailed and so grossly misrepresented. Our readers can judge from the above comments of leading journals how utterly unfounded were the partisan strictures of the News.

DEMOCRACY IN ILLINOIS.—There are two varieties of this article in Illinois, the DOUGLAS and BUCHANAN brand. We do not undertake to say which is the genuine one.—The News, in its last issue, published the resolutions of the DOUGLAS branch, as adopted at Springfield. Here are two resolutions adopted by the BUCHANAN branch, last week, in Chicago:

> Resolved, That the administration of James Buchanan has commanded our warmest approbation; and we hereby tender to the President of the United States our thanks for the faithful manner in which he has carried out, in the conduct of his administration, the principles of Democracy as expounded and practised by the Fathers of our Republic.
> Resolved, That the National Democracy of Cook County take this occasion to repudiate all sympathy with, and to express their detestation of the heresies of Squatter Sovereignty, as originally enunciated, or more recently laid down in the "Harper Manifesto," and hereby declare them contrary to the Constitution of the Union, the decision of the Supreme Court, and at war with the time-honored principles of the Democratic party.

The "Harper Manifesto," thus strongly denounced, is the DOUGLAS platform on the subject of Slavery in the Territories. There is evidently a wide gulf between DOUGLAS and BUCHANAN Democracy in Illinois.

A CRUSADE AGAINST NORTHERN SCHOOL-TEACHERS.—The enlightened Legislature of Virginia, under the influence of the Harper's Ferry panic, have adopted the following resolution.

> Resolved, That the Committee of Schools and Colleges inquire into the expediency of reporting a bill prohibiting School Commissioners throughout the Commonwealth from subscribing to any teacher, male or female, who hails from north of Mason and Dixon's line, unless they shall have resided in the State of Virginia, for at least ten successive years previous.

Virginia will be the chief sufferer by the proscriptive course herein proposed. But we do not believe that it will be adopted. A "sober second thought" will yet save the Old Dominion from the perpetration of such folly.

ANOTHER FLOURISHING INSURANCE COMPANY.—The Phoenix Insurance Company of Hartford is, says the Courant of that city, "young but strong." Its directors, last week, declared a dividend of $10 on a share, payable in cash, on and after Jan. 3d; and they have a surplus of more than $140,000 after paying this dividend. The Company began in June, '54, and in five years and six months have returned to their stockholders $220,000 in cash, and $100,000 in stock paid up from the surplus! They began on a capital of $200,000, and now have a capital of $400,000 invested in the most readily convertible securities, and a surplus of $140,000 to cover all contingencies."

CRIME IN NEW YORK.—We learn from the Express that one hundred and three persons were murdered in the city of New York during the past year, either by their own hands or the hands of others. The police arrested 68,890 persons for offences against the laws, and of that great number only 8,754 were brought to trial in the criminal court, and only 3,973 were convicted and punished.—The journal which gives these facts says:

> "Our tax-payers will do well to consider whether it pays to keep up a force of 1,311 policemen, at an expense of a million and a quarter of dollars, to arrest 68,890 criminals and vagabonds, on the one hand, and a force of aldermen, police justices, and other influential parties, to let 64,917 of these rogues go again, on the other hand.

COAL VS. GOLD.—The shipments of coal from the different coal regions of Pennsylvania, excepting the Western Section, during the past year, amounted to 7,804,000 tons; which, at the Philadelphia market price of $3,50 per ton, would amount to over twenty-seven millions of dollars. Adding two or three millions of tons for the Western district, and the value of the entire supply will not be far from thirty-five millions of dollars. This will do for a single product of the Keystone State, and is nearly equal to the annual export of gold from California.

VIRGINIA BULLYING.—The Richmond Enquirer, trying to scare the Know-Nothings into voting for a Democratic Speaker, says that "a vote for SHERMAN, under any circumstances, would secure social as well as political ostracism in Virginia." These insolent threats may possibly avail with weak-kneed Democrats, or tender-footed South Americans, but they will only nerve the determination of the Republicans to vote for SHERMAN, first, last and all the time.

THE BERLIN CITY COURANT learns that the people of Manchester and the Town of Green Lake are "paying up their taxes like Christians."

Total electoral vote	307
Necessary to elect a President	154
Northern electoral vote	186
Southern electoral vote	120

HOW THE MOORS AND SPANIARDS FIGHT.—On the 25th, at five o'clock in the morning, says a letter from the Spanish camp, four companies of the regiment of the Madrid Chasseurs marched toward Sierra de Bullone to reconnoitre. Suddenly upwards of 500 Moors were seen rapidly advancing. These were followed soon by others, and, altogether, they amounted to 4000. The Spaniards immediately fired, causing great havoc among the enemy; but, seeing they were coming on with great alacrity, ECHAGUE ordered an attack with the bayonet, when the Moors divided into two bodies, one to resist the charge of the Spanish Infantry, the other to attack the redoubt that had been built a few hours before. The first body was completely routed at the charge of the Castillian Chasseurs, and fled in confusion towards the mountains. The other body was more numerous, and their fire was concentrated exclusively on the defenders of the redoubt. ECHAGUE ordered a square to be formed; and, at the impetuous charge of the Moors, the soldiers of the square retired. The enemy, imagining they were flying, rushed impetuously against the square, which, opening itself on a sudden, disclosed a battery. More than two hundred Moors perished. Another division came then, and prevented the Moors from escaping. The fight became a horrible butchery; the Moors threw away their muskets and fought with their peculiar long daggers, called "gumias." The Spanish soldiers found themselves quite at home in this sort of struggle. They also threw away their rifles and seized their "navajass." Nothing could equal the ferocity of the combatants. My friend says it is quite impossible to form an adequate idea of this fight. One Spanish soldier slew three Moors with his knife, and yet he had his face dreadfully cut by the "gumias." Many had their entrails hanging on their legs, and went on more fiercely than ever. Not a shot was then to be heard.—Spanish artillerymen, chasseurs, and even officers were fighting knife in hand. Two hundred Moors were killed in this savage combat, and nearly a thousand fearfully wounded. The Spanish loss was also very great.

THE PUGILISTIC CHAMPIONSHIP.—The match between HEENAN and SAYERS for the Championship of the World has been definitely settled, and the 16th of April fixed upon as the day upon which the great battle is to be fought near London. The following are the articles of agreement:

> "Articles of agreement entered, this 16th day of December, 1859, between Thomas Sayers and John C. Heenan. The said T. Sayers agrees to fight the said John Heenan for £200 a side, according to the Rules of the Ring of the Pugilistic Benevolent Association, by which the said T. Sayers and John Heenan hereby mutually agree to be bound. The said fight shall take place on Monday, April 16, 1860, within twenty miles and above a hundred from London. In pursuance of this agreement, £100 a side are now deposited in the hands of the editor of Bell's Life, who shall be final stakeholder. The third deposit shall be made, of £50 a side, at Langham's, Cambrian, Castle street, Leicester square, on Wednesday, February 22d, 1860. The last deposit shall be made of £50 a side, at Owen Swift's on March 30th. The deposits shall be made between the hours of eight and ten, and the party failing in any deposit shall forfeit the whole of the money then staked. The men shall be in the ring between the hours of twelve and one, or the man absent shall forfeit the battle money.—The expenses of the ropes and stakes shall be shared equally by the combatants. The editor of Bell's Life in London to name the place and the referee. (Signed,)
> "JOHN GIDEON, for TOM SAYERS.
> "FRED. F——, for JOHN C. HEENAN."

TWO LIVING ISSUES.—The following statement by the Albany Journal, of two phases of the present great Slavery issue, is very forcible:

> "The Democratic party claim that Slavery exists, or may legally exist, wherever it is not positively precluded. Here the Republican party takes 'issue' with the Democracy and claim, that Slavery can only exist where it is sanctioned by affirmative local law. This is a vital 'issue;' and if no other 'issue' entered into a national canvass, it would, of itself, justify an earnest contest.
> But other 'issues' grow out of it, equally vital. For instance, the Democracy not only say that Slavery exists where it is not expressly forbidden, but they deny that there is any power, anywhere, to exclude it from the Territories! This makes Slavery independent of the law and more potent than the People! Such an 'issue' has been forced into politics by the Democracy. Could there be any more 'living and practical issue' than this?"

HIFALUTIN.—The N. Y. Tribune of the 5th inst. contains the following:

> The Hon. William F. Samford of Sunny Slope, near Auburn, Alabama, is out for Gov. Wise for President. According to Samford, there is a great excitement in Alabama about Wise, not merely at Sunny Slope, but every where else in the State. "He seems to be regarded as a chosen instrument of Divine Providence to rescue the nation from the perils which environ it—a miracle of power; a minister of mercy; or an avenging sword of justice, and a monument of great events at hand. All ranks of men stand still to hear of his deeds, and catch the echo of his wonderful words and hasten to repeat them, until the eddying tide of human tongues roar along the highways and lift their clamorous eulogies in the market places."
> Who says this isn't fine? and who says it isn't true? Certainly there was never anybody but Wise who could be called a miracle of power, a minister of mercy, an avenging sword, and a monument of great events all at once. No wonder that Samford should become lyrical and dithyrambic over such a political Proteus. We sympathize in his admiration. Wise is a great wonder. "The inspired harmonious hearts of more than thirty millions of freemen in more than thirty States send back their refrain of his eulogy, until its echoes roll among the impending crags and awful chasms which waylay our national career." Now let us all do our duty, and perhaps he will be nominated at Charleston.

THE BLACK DOCTOR.—We had lost sight of this famous Parisian doctor, who coined money by the supposed cure of numerous bad cases of cancer. A late Paris letter says that he is in prison: his elegant furniture, his armored carriages and his pure blood English horses are passing under the hammer of the Sheriff for debt. He is charged with having caused a death by a want of knowledge of the medicine he was using.

Tale of a Goat.

Seated in a "stall" at Jenkins' a day or two since, we overheard a conversation which took place between a couple in the next apartment. The parties were a well known produce dealer of this city, and his friend from Dallas—a well to do farmer, whose trips from home were few and far between. Our friend from Dallas had picked up a paper, and in glancing over its columns, his eye fell upon a paragraph relative to the city goat law.

"Goats! dog on 'em! if I had my way there shouldn't be one in the land!"

"Why not?" inquired the city friend.—"They are a nice animal to have about the premises. In portions of the city the people would rather have a goat than a cow. What objection can you have to a goat?"

"What objection! Look here, John, do you see this scar across my nose?" pointing to an ugly mark lengthwise that organ, "do you see that? That's one objection, and that's enough. Ef you don't think I've got good reasons to hate goats when I tell you about that scar, then I aint got nothing to say, that's all."

Here the country fellow looked carefully around, and seeing no one listening he dropped his voice and began.

"John, you know that my wife weaves all the cloth that's used in the family, and we don't wear the kind o' clothes your city folks do. Ef we did you know we couldn't live at it. Well, the old woman made me a pair of pantaloons out of light colored homespun, and after wearing 'em awhile they began to fit too tight across the hips, and finally I persuaded Lizzy to alter 'em. Well, there wasn't seam enough to make 'em fuller, and she had to put a piece in behind. Now it happened there wasn't a scrap of white homespun left, and Lizzy used a piece of old red gown to fill up. I didn't care about the looks o' the thing, so long as it was comfortable and the pantaloons felt easy, and so I put 'em on and went to work as usual. But my youngest boy that I called John, after you, he had a pet goat, the durndest fool, when he took a notion, that you ever saw. The cussed thing never saw anything red but what he tuck right arter it, and I'd as soon think of stickin' my head in the fire, as go down in the horse lot, with them pantaloons on without something to hide that red patch.

One day me and John went over to Joe Williams', just about a quarter of a mile from the old Orville road, to look for a sow we had lost. In coming back—the day was purty warm—we stopped at Rock Spring, where the water comes up between two rocks, and jest the best water you ever tasted, too, and there I got down on all fours and stuck my head down to suck up a long, cool draught. John, I'll swear to you that my mouth had hardly touched the water, when I got the all firedest kind of a thump upon tother end, right where the red patch was. It knocked the seven senses right out o' me, jammed my face agin the sharp edge of a rock and busted a gash into my nose that you could have laid your finger into. After considerable scufflin' I got up and wiped the blood and water from my eyes, and began to look around to see what was the matter. The first thing that I sot my eyes on was that infernal buttin' goat, a rarin' and a cavortin', about twenty feet off, making' preparations to pitch into me agin'. Then I saw into the whole thing, and then you better know I begun to git hot. It warn't more'n two hundred yards from the horse lot to where we was, and the goat had followed us down. He got there jist as I stooped down to drink, and as I tucked up my coat tails to keep 'em from gittin' wet, he caught a fair sight at that darned red patch; and he pitched into me with a runnin' start—jee-roozle-um!

Well, I went up to the house and had this out on my face fixed up, but the scar will always be thar as long as I live. About two weeks after that, when the swelling about my eyes begun to go down, I took my rifle one morning, and went down into the horse lot. After breakfast, John come runnin' and cryin' to the house, and said somebody had shot his goat, and killed it. I didn't let on, but I think he found my bullet harder to buck than that red patch! Ever sence that spring business I've been down on goats, and I think I've reasons to be down on 'em. They can't stay about me."

What further our Dallas county anti goat friend had to say, we didn't stop to hear; but gulphed down our "dozen" and left.—Mobile Register.

Variety in Creation.

There are 56,000 species of plants on exhibition in the Museum of Natural History in Paris. The whole number of species in earth and sea cannot be less than four or five hundred thousand. These are all sizes, from the invisible forests in a bed of mouldiness to the towering trees of Malibar, fifty feet in circumference, and the banyans whose shoots cover a circumference of five acres. Each of these has a complicated system of vessels for the circulation of its juices. Some trees have leaves narrow and short; others, as the talipot of Ceylon, have leaves so large that one of them can shelter twenty men. Some excavate their leaves annually, as a whole robe, leaving the tree nude, its bare stem towering aloft, and its branches spreading themselves uncovered, in the sky; while the leaves of others drop off one by one, new ones constantly growing in the place of the dismembered ones, and the tree retaining its perpetual verdure.

There have actually been ascertained, in the animal kingdom, about 61,000 species of living creatures. There are 600 species of mammalia—those that suckle their young—the most of which are quadrupeds. Of birds there are 4,000 species; of fishes, 3,000; of reptiles 700; and of insects, 44,000 species.—Besides these, there are 3,000 species of shell fish, and not less than eighty or one hundred thousand species of animalcules invisible to the naked eye.

Some forms of life require a moist atmosphere, others a dry one. A blue water lily grows in the canals of Alexandria, which, when the water evaporates from the bed of the canal, dries up; and when the water is again in the canals, it again grows and blossoms. And some of the lowest animals may be completely dried, and kept in that state any length of time; but when they are again moistened they resume the functions of life. Some plants are adapted only to particular climates; but they do not flourish equally well in these. As a tree which in the Southern States attains a height of 100 feet at Great Silver Lake, the northern limit at which it is found, becomes dwarfed to a shrub of only five feet high. Life, both vegetable and animal, is infinitely modified; but in all cases its best development is only under those conditions to which it is specially adapted.

TWO GUBERNATORIAL MESSAGES—THE WISE AND THE OTHER-WISE.—The Message of Governor Morgan is a much less imposing piece of literary composition than the similar document recently delivered by Governor Wise to the Legislature of Virginia.—Where the Executive of the Old Dominion dilates into Pythian pictures of civil war and coming of chaos, the Chief Magistrate of the Empire State meekly balances the books of the Commonwealth; and the space which is surrendered by the one to Federal relations and the "great argument" of Union, is consumed by the other in a detailed discussion of prison accounts and a careful examination into the claims of rival systems of transportation. This contrast must force itself upon the attention of every man whose fate has compelled him to peruse both of these papers, and it involves perhaps the chief value of Gov. Morgan's manifesto to the nation at large. For it perfectly illustrates the actual difference between the positions of the Northern and the Southern States. In the message of the Governor of Virginia, the Harper's Ferry affair, with all its antecedents, significances and possible results, led the van and took up the main line of his discourse. Five solid columns of this journal were filled with the lucubrations of the Governor on this head. In the message of the Governor of New York, the relations of this State with our Southern confederates, and the bearings of the question of Slavery upon our policy past and present, are dismissed with but little more than than half a column of type, at the end of the document. These we believe to be the relative prominence of these topics in the Northern and the Southern mind at this moment, and if the calmer and more conservative men of the South would but see it and use it properly, in this fact lies a great hope for an escape from the National difficulties which now environ us.

AMERICAN SAILORS AT THE MOUTH OF THE PEIHO.—The calculating, long-backed diplomatists of the United States, who had sent their Admiral and Envoy to reap the advantages for which Englishmen were fighting and dying, forgot that there were certain promptings of the heart which over-ride all selfish considerations; and that, in short, as Flag-officer Tatnall observed, "blood is thicker than water," ay, than ink either. An American boat visited one of our vessels, and on wishing to leave her, the officer found all his men had gone out of the boat. After some delay they were found looking very hot, smoke-begrimed and fightish. "Halloa, sirs," said the officer with assumed severity, "don't you know we are neutrals?" "Begs pardon," said the gallant fellows, looking very bashful; "they were very short-handed at the bow-gun, sir, and so we give'd them a help for fellowship sake;" they had been hard at it for an hour. Gallant Americans! you and your Admiral did more that day to bind England and the United States than all your lawyers and pettifogging politicians have ever done to part us.—Blackwood's Magazine.

IF ONE have served thee, tell the deed to many; hast thou served many, tell it not to any.

Large and Small Trees.

As this subject is attracting much attention from fruit tree planters, we add to what we have already published, the following remarks from CHARLES KENNICOTT, of the Prairie Farmer:

The best piece of advice we can offer is this, plant small trees, and for these reasons: They cost one half less all around, that is, at the nursery, in the transportation, and in planting, while the risk of loss if properly planted is not worth estimating, as a man ought not to lose one in a thousand. The additional reasons that may be urged in favor of small trees are these: You can form the tops to suit yourselves, and it is the only certain way of obtaining an orchard of low headed trees, and in this State there is no use of having any other. Because on the open prairies of the North and West, where the trees are exposed to high winds and occasional furious tornadoes, they must be kept low on that account, while at the South it is absolutely essential to shade the trunks from the glare of the summer sun, or the trees will kill entirely in less than ten years. Again, plant these two or three year old trees (apples) along side of four or five year olds, and in five years time you can see no difference in size, unless it be in favor of the small ones.

The very strong resolution passed at the late Bloomington Fruit Convention, recommending small trees, will have its weight with farmers and work a world of good. Of course there are instances where it pays to plant large trees; for instance, if you are close to a nursery, and can select and dig them yourself. Many persons will plant trees this year for the first time, and they do not like the idea of waiting several years for their trees to grow, and they argue that the older and larger trees are the sooner they will produce fruit. But that is no reason why they should buy and plant all large trees; it would be better to put out half a dozen of the largest five or six year old trees of certain varieties that are known to be early bearers.

Every farmer does not know that a Keswick Codlin, three years old, will bear fruit, and plenty of it, five or ten years sooner than a Yellow Bellflower. There are several excellent kinds, that bear nearly as early as the Codlin. The best among these for Northern Illinois, Wisconsin and most of Iowa, will be, (in addition to the Keswick Codlin, which should head the list) Duchess of Oldenburg, Hawthorden, Sweet Pippin, and early Harvest. Every one of these sorts sho'd be in full bearing at ten years old, from the graft, or five to eight from the bud. With good culture the dwarf apples will pay for the garden or small town lot, where it is very bad taste and poor economy to waste precious space by planting large standard fruit trees.

JUDSON'S PATENT

GOVERNOR VALVES,

FOR REGULATING THE

MOTION OF STEAM ENGINES,

WARRANTED THE MOST PERFECT Governor of Steam Power in the world, and like all really great inventions, the most simple. Manufactured by Judson & Snow, at Rochester, N. Y., Selye Buildings, near R. R. Depot.

☞ Shop Rights for sale.

CAUTION TO INFRINGERS.

Patent issued in the United States, Nov. 8th, 1850; Reissued, Jan. 4th, 1851. Second Patent, March 4th, 1851. Patented also in Great Britain and the Canadas, June 5th 1851.

This improvement consists in making regulating valves to open with a rapidly increasing ratio of opening, by increasing the width of the opening made in the valve—or by accelerating the opening motion of the ordinary valves in use—or by combining increased width of opening, with accelerated valve motion. My patent Valves and Governors are so arranged as to give the resistance to the piston's motion, (or retard of the engine,) the power to open the valve just the exact amount of aperature necessary to counteract that resistance; and from the aperture, by the addition of equal amounts of resistance, notwithstanding that the action of the governor is continually decreasing in its effects.

I therefore reverse the action of valves combined with governors, as heretofore used. And as this effect can be produced by many different mechanical devices, (apparently not similar, but really indentical with my improvement,) by which infringers have imposed upon the public, I therefore caution and request all persons interested, to examine carefully all alleged improvements in valves or governors, to see if the application of this truth or principle, first discovered and applied by me, is not involved in their arrangements;—and thereby prevent a fraud upon the purchaser and inventor, both of which are at present much annoyed by their piratical depredations. Special Notices.

Dyspepsia! Dyspepsia! Dyspepsia!!!
What is it? How Cured?

DYSPEPSIA IS OUR NATIONAL DISEASE—Weak Stomach, feeble digestion, distress after eating, costive habits, bilious condition. How many suffer with it and its attendant symptoms of low spirits, bad taste, coated tongue, obstupified head, and attacks of the headache! Yet how few know how to cure it! Generally, because the bowels are constipated, resort is had to cathartics, or laxatives. But such a condition was never cured by cathartics, whose only office is to weaken the digestion and impair the integrity of the entire assimilative system.

But HUMPHREYS' HOMEOPATHIC DYSPEPSIA PILLS—a simple medicated sugar pill—have cured hundreds of the worst and most obstinate cases.—This is done simply by improving the tone and restoring the integrity of the digestive organs, from which result good appetite, regular habits, a clear head, and buoyant spirits. Such a medicine is a gem, and only requires to be known to be appreciated.

Price 25 cents per box, with directions. Six boxes $1.

N. B.—A full set of HUMPHREYS' HOMEOPATHIC SPECIFICS, with Book of Directions, and twenty remedies, in large vials, and morocco case, $5; do. in plain case, $4. Family case of fifteen boxes and book, $2.

These remedies, by the single box or case, are sent by mail or express, free of charge, to any address, on receipt of the price. Address,

WHEREFORE WEEP.

Weep not for Death!
'Tis but a fever stilled,
A pain suppressed, a fear at rest,
A solemn hope fulfilled.
The moonshine on the slumbering deep
Is scarcely calmer—wherefore weep?

Weep ye for change!
For earth's pure dews exhaling,
For joy's first tear, for hope's first fear,
For love's first little failing.
Morn's lightest shadows on the seas
Tell us of midnight—weep for these?

Weep not for Death!
The fount of tears is sealed.
Who knows how bright the inward light
To those shut eyes revealed?
Who knows what fearless love may fill
The heart that seems so cold and still?

Weep ye for life?
For smiles that end in sighing,
For love whose quest has never rest,
For the heart's hourly dying?
Weep not when silence locks the breath;
Life is the bitterness of Death!

A PERILOUS HOUR.

I was apprenticed to a decorative painter, but being of a bold, danger-loving turn, I ran away to sea before my time was out.

After some years of knocking around, I got tired of maritime life, and having married, determined to stick to the shore. I got work with a builder whose peculiar line lay in erecting long chimneys. I had always a very good head, and could stand on an elevation that made most men dizzy, and so I was soon a favorite with my master.

We had on one occasion to fasten a lightning conductor which sprung very near to the top of a very high chimney, and Mr. Staning chose myself and one James Cooley to do it, as the most daring of his men.

About half a dozen of us went that morning with a hand cart, containing the necessary ropes, blocks, the kite, and a box or cradle.

Having flown the kite, and dropped its line across the top of the chimney, we soon drew up the rope, at the end of which was a block, through which ran the line whereby we were to be drawn up.

Cooley had only been married a fortnight; and as we stepped into the cradle the men asked him if he hadn't a last dying speech, to leave to his wife; and then, Mr. Staning having shaken hands with us and bid us be cool and steady, we were drawn slowly up.

It was known all over town that the conductor was to be fixed, though, as the day was not named, I did not expect we should have many spectators; but as we got higher and the view opened under our feet, I saw the street was already thronged with starers. Cooley was very quiet; and when I waved my cap to the people, said snipishly that he thought I might think of better things than how to amuse those gaping fools, who, he dared say, desired no better fun than to see us meet with an accident.

I had come up in the best heart, thinking, indeed, nothing about the danger we incurred; but as we drew nearer and nearer the top, and had nothing, as it seemed, belonging to this world near us, but this strained rod, I began to see the peril of this undertaking.

What Cooley thought of it I don't know; he sat in the bottom of the cradle never looking out, though I told him he would do better to keep his eyes about him so that he might get used to the height.

Good Heavens! What was this?

Here we were within a rod of the top, and still they were winding away without abating speed in the least! I guessed in a moment they mistook our height, and with the great purchase of that windlass the rope would be broken when the cradle came to the block.

I sprang up and catching the rope, climbed hand over hand to the coppic.

Cooley, too, sprang up and followed me. He got up safe; and still they kept on winding up, till the rope with its block fell down. Thus were two men left in a most desperate condition.

Poor Cooley was completely crazed with the fright, and the moment he got upon the coping, which was only a foot and a half broad, he called out:

"Where can I pray? where can I kneel and pray?" and so I said, solemnly: "Sit down, Jem; God will hear us if we pray to Him sitting."

The color of his face was transparent blue, and it was distorted and twitching as if he was in a fit. His eyes were very wild, and drawn into squint, and he couldn't sit steady, swaying his body backward and forward, so that I felt certain that he must topple over.

"Come, Jem, lad," I said, thinking to take the fright out of him, "it's bad enough, but it can be mended. Hitch up a bit, and put your arm around the rod; maybe it will steady you."

"Where are you and where is the rod," he asked in a hollow voice, though he was looking right at me, and the rod was only a foot or two from him.

By this time I knew that he had gone blind with the fright, and self-preservation said, "Don't go near him;" but then I thought of his newly-wedded wife, and that, taking him all through, he was always a very decent fellow, and I thought how I should have liked him to have done had I been in his place; so I determined to run a bit of risk in his favor. Of course, I dare not stand on my feet, but, working myself on my hands, I got to him, and putting my arm around his waist, and telling him as cheerfully as I could to keep cool, got him with his arm around the rod. It had, however, sprung the stapling for some yards down, and was so loose that it swayed with him, and I expected every minute to see him falling head and heels down and the rod tearing away with him.

There was a great bustle down below, people were rushing round the yard and pushing to get in; but as yet there were some score of men at the foot of the chimney, and by close looking I saw them put somebody on a board and carry him gently away towards the engine house. One of the men followed after with a hat in his hand; then I knew that somebody was hurt by the falling cradle, and that it must have been poor Mr. Staning, as none of our men wore hats. Not a face was turned up to us. I learned afterwards that our men were so taken up with sorrow that so good a master should be killed, that for awhile they had never thought about us, and the people outside imagined that we had come down with the cradle; so thus we were left in total isolation for fully twenty minutes.

While I was thus watching them below, feeling very sorry for my poor master, I was startled by a wild laugh from Cooley, who immediately began making cat-yells, and yelling as if he were possessed. Then I knew, of course, that he had just gone mad.

Even now I tremble to peer down the shaft, black, sooty and yawning, and scarcely less so to look outside at the flight of pigeons sweeping round at a less height than we were. Jas. Cooley, thank God, he was so dazzled that he could not see me, called my name three times, as I sat fairly cringing in dread that his sight might clear, and with a ghastly grin, and chewing with his mouth, he began working himself towards me. I worked away as noiselessly as I could, with every hair on my head standing on end. He followed me twice around that horrid coping, making more hideous noises, and being come a second time to the rod, he got an idea in his muddled brain that I had fallen over, for he never lost a sense of where he was all through the trying time. Then he tried to get on his feet, but at the risk of my own life I could not let the poor fellow rush on certain death without one more effort, and I cried out to him to sit down, and he cowered down like a whipp-d dog all trembling. I suppose it had been put in his head that I was a dead man speaking to him.

That morning my wife had got a letter from Canada, and as there were parts we could not make out, I had put it in my pocket to get our time-keeper to read it for me. I had a scrap of uncovered paper at the bottom, and by another good providence I happened to have a red lead pencil in my pocket. I wrote on the paper, "Get us down, Cooley has gone mad." This I shut in my tobacco box, and was fortunate enough to deposit it at the feet of two men, who were standing at the engine house door.

Directly all was a bustle to rescue us.—They got the kite up again; I watched it mount higher and higher, and when the slack twine fell between Cooley and myself, I took it in my hand and could have kissed it. Poor Cooley, with his teeth chattering, still fancied I was a spirit, and I did all in my power to favor that idea, till they got another cradle up to us. Then having got him in, I scrambled in myself, and clutching him fast, shouted for them to lower; and so we were got down, he wrestling and fighting with me all the way down.

He was in a mad house for several months, then went to scouring, for he can never face any height again; and I have never had the same clear head since that adventure.

Sands' Pale Cream Ale.

HAVING RECENTLY PURCHASED the Spring Brewery, on Eighth and Chestnut streets, with the view of making the above mentioned beverage in Milwaukee, I would respectfully solicit the patronage of the people and those Saloons and Restaurants that desire to keep a prime Ale on draught for their patrons.

To those who are familiar with Sands' Chicago Pale Cream Ale, I need say nothing as to its quality; to those who are not, I would simply ask a trial, and I pledge myself to my patrons to do all in my power to make Sands' Pale Cream Ale as popular a beverage in Milwaukee and vicinity as it is in Chicago and surrounding country, and I trust by the assistance of lovers of good Ale, to give Sands' Milwaukee Pale Cream and Amber Ale a reputation second to none in the West.

Saloons and Families in city or country supplied by the barrel, half-barrel or case, or in bottles. Also Porter bottled or in cas s of any size. Orders by mail or otherwise promptly attended to. Price List sent by mail on application.

Richardson's Irish Linens, Damaks,

DIAPERS, &C.—CONSUMERS OF RICHARDSON'S LINENS, and those desirous of obtaining the GENUINE GOODS, should see that the articles they purchase are sealed with the full name of the firm, J. N. RICHARDSON, SONS & OWDEN, as a guarantee of the soundness and durability of the Goods.

This caution is rendered essentially necessary, as large quantities of inferior and defective Linens are prepared, season after season and sealed with the name of RICHARDSON, by Irish Houses, who, regardless of the injury thus inflicted alike on the American consumer and the manufacturers of the genuine Goods, will not readily abandon a business so profitable while purchasers can be imposed on with Goods of a worthless character.

Medical.

BININGER'S OLD LONDON DOCK GIN

A. M. BININGER & CO.,
(ESTABLISHED 1778.)
SOLE IMPORTERS,
No. 338 Broad Street, New York.

THIS DELICIOUS TONIC, ESPECIALLY for the use of the Medical Profession and the Family,

Possesses those intrinsic medicinal properties, (Tonic and Diuretic) which belong to an OLD AND PURE GIN.

The business of manufacturing spurious Gins, and offering them as beverages, under the titles "Aromatic," "Cordial," "Medicated," &c., has become so common that the public are justly suspicious of nearly everything that is offered under similar forms, and the trade has thus been brought into disrepute. It has remained for one house (established in 1778) to supply the pressing popular need, and to inaugurate a new era in the history of the Trade. We trust that our established reputation—founded upon over eighty years of experience—thoroughly vindicates our claim to public confidence.

N. B.

A comparison of "Bininger's Old London Dock Gin" with others bearing similar names, will establish its superiority, and insure to it [illegible] consideration.

Put up in Quart Bottles, in Cases of one and two dozen each, and sold throughout the World by Druggists, Grocers, &c.

The entire disease is often arrested at once, and in all cases the violence of the attack is moderated, the disease shortened, and rendered less dangerous.

Coughs and Colds, which are of such frequent occurrence, and which so often lay the foundation of diseased lungs, bronchitis and consumption, may be at once cured by the Fever and Cough Pills.

In all chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Weak Stomach, Constipation, Liver Complaints, Piles, Female Debility, and Irregularities, old Headaches, Sore or Weak Eyes, Catarrh, Salt Rheum, and other old eruptions, the case has specifics whose proper application will afford a cure in almost every instance. Often the cure of a single chronic disease, such as Dyspepsia, Piles or Catarrh, Headache or Female Weakness, has more than paid for the case ten times over.

Money Matters.

NEW YORK MONEY AND STOCK MARKET.—The following is the New York Money and Stock Market of to-day, as reported by telegraph:

The advices by the Arabia are to the effect that 2,069 of the shares of the Ill. Central had been paid in full, chiefly by turning in the Debentures and Freeland bonds of the company; $250,000 of the Debentures, and $462,000 of the Freeland bonds. These, with the Freeland bonds cancelled in the land department amounting to $122,000, have discharged $643,000 of the Freeland debts. Satterthwaits' London circular says the increase of the traffic on the Ill. Central, $94,701, is not satisfactory; the price of the shares was kept down by the low quotations from England, and by shares sent back for sale, amounting during the year to 16,000, which have all been absorbed—a considerable number have been taken by buyers from Montreal.

The money market continues active, and in discounts we notice no change, the demand being 7@9 per cent. for first class paper; call loans on the other hand are rather easier, but exceptional transactions only took place below 7 per cent.

AS ACCIDENTS WILL HAPPEN EVEN in well regulated families, it is very desirable to have some cheap and convenient way for repairing Furniture, Crockery, Toys, &c.

SPALDING'S PREPARED GLUE

Meets all emergencies, and no household can afford to be without it. It is always ready and up to the sticking point. There is no longer a necessity for limping chairs, splintered veneers, headless dolls and broken cradles. It is just the article for cone, shell and ornamental work, so popular with ladies of refinement and taste.

This admirable preparation is used cold, being chemically held in solution, and possessing all the valuable qualities of the best cabinet maker's glue. It may be used in the place of ordinary mucilage, being vastly more adhesive.

THE GREATEST MEDICAL DISCOVERY
OF THE AGE.
MR. KENNEDY, OF ROXBURY, HAS discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures
EVERY KIND OF HUMOR FROM
THE WORST SCROFULA DOWN TO A COMMON PIMPLE.
He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, both thunder humor. He has now in his possession over one hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.
Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.
One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.
Two or three bottles will cure the system of biles.
Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the stomach.
Three or five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.
One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.
Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.
Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.
One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.
Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of ringworm.
Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.
Three or four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.
Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.
A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.
ROXBURY, Mass.
DEAR MADAM:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kinds of humors, is so well established, by the unanimous voice of all who have ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skillful physicians and the most careful druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.
In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of its curative powers, in relieving all, and curing most of the diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother,
NURSING SORE MOUTH,
is cured as if by a miracle; your own temper is restored to its natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fretful naps to calm and sweet slumbers; and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessings to your husband and household.
In the more advanced stages of CANKER
it extends to the stomach, causing DYSPEPSIA which is nothing but canker on the stomach; then on the intestines and creating a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifference even to the cares of your family.
Your stomach is
RAW AND INFLAMED,
your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds, and even of that your system does not get half the nourishment it contains, as the acrimonious fluid of the canker eats it up; then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your best day is gone. For want of nourishment your system becomes loose and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follows a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adapted to CURE;
Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine and small of the back; pain of the hip-joint when you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also that most excruciating of diseases the PILES.
How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease and pining away a miserable life, and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress on your mind that good old proverb "an ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure." In the MEDICAL DISCOVERY,
you have both the preventative and the cure, with this great and good quality; that it will never, under any circumstances, do you an injury. Yours truly,
DONALD KENNEDY.

GREAT WONDER
Of the Nineteenth Century,
PROFESSOR WOOD'S
HAIR RESTORATIVE.
SAYS THE ST. LOUIS, (MO.) DEMOCRAT: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic.—Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:
BATH, MAINE, Jan. 20, 1858.
Professor O. J. Wood & Co.:
GENTLEMEN: Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty-five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two, has used it with the same effect.
The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly, yours, A. C. RAYMOND.
Baltimore, Jan. 23, 1858.
WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.
Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to answer as the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure. FINLEY JOHNSON.
The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally loved. WM. DYER.
Brookfield, January 12, 1858.
Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made a trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.
Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion and retails for $3 a bottle.

DR. CHURCHILL'S REMEDY.
WINCHESTER'S GENUINE PREPARATION OF THE HYPOPHOSPHITES
OF LIME AND OF SODA,
(Made from the Formula of Dr. J. F. Churchill,)
FOR THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF CONSUMPTION!
THE SUCCESS OF THIS NEW REMEDY, (discovered by Dr. Churchill, of Paris,) is obtaining the most UNBOUNDED POPULARITY throughout Europe and the United States. It is a purely SCIENTIFIC PREPARATION, and acts with INVARIABLE EFFICACY in all stages of Pulmonary and Nervous Diseases.
This Remedy has not only a curative effect, but will, if used wherever there exists a suspicion of the disease, PREVENT ITS DEVELOPMENT, and thus act, as a preventive with regard to Consumption, just as vaccination does with regard to small-pox.
What the Medical Profession Say.
"In no instance have I found the Remedy to fail."—Dr. Churchill.
"I have used your preparation of the Hypophosphites with the most happy effect."—G. Fisher, M. D., Lynville, Ill.
"I have been astonished in witnessing the good effects of the Hypophosphites. The statements in your pamphlet are not at all exaggerated. My patient was just entering the last stage of tubercular consumption."—S. Moser, M. D., Hoosic Falls, N. Y.
"They exert an important remedial influence over the tubercular disease by improving the nervous strength and invigorating the nutritive functions."—Dr. W. E. Rust, Morristown, N. J.
"I have derived more satisfaction from the use of your Hypophosphites than from all other forms of medication combined."—Dr. Geo. W. Muris, Columbus, O.
"If, on the earliest appearance of the symptoms, the patient takes daily about ten grains of the Hypophosphites, he will speedily find himself in the enjoyment of such health as he, perhaps, had never known in his life before."
"Winchester's Hypophosphites are unexceptional in their preparation."—Am. Druggists' Circular.
"Mr. Winchester is worthy of all confidence and devotes himself enthusiastically to these preparations in all their variety of combination. Prepared strictly by Dr. Churchill's method."—D. Meredith Reese, M. D., New York.
"Lowell, O., July 5, 1859.—I have had several cases given up by attending physicians who are now exempt from all the symptoms of pulmonary disease. I have used the Remedy in my own case, with decided success. It was regarded as hopeless by physicians and friends, and even by myself, under the 'old treatment.' I am now able to ride, in attending the sick, as many miles, perhaps, in a day, as any other physician in the country."—W. F. Clark, M. D.
"The Hypophosphites are most appropriate Remedies in a large class of affections resulting from loss of nervous force."—Boston Medical and Surgical Journal.
Dr. Churchill's Work on Consumption,
IS NOW READY.
The Hypophosphites may be used with incurable success in Chronic Bronchitis, Asthma, Dyspepsia, and in all "Nervous" Disorders.
Make no Delay!
Consumptives, in any stage of the disease, should resort immediately to the use of the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. "Winchester's Genuine Preparation" (in simple syrup) in extra large bottles, is "chemically pure"; is the combination prepared by Dr. Churchill "for general use"; and is prepared according to his original Formula.
